

Financial hardship due to COVID-19

Factors affecting your ability to pay infringement notice

Your infringement notice number:

Boroondara Council understands that this is a difficult time for our community. In response to COVID-19, we have created a number of initiatives for our residents. For more information regarding these initiatives, visit www.boroondara.vic.gov.au and type “covid” into the search bar.

Apply to review a fine

We understand that financial hardship as a result of COVID-19 has become a real issue for a number of residents in our community. If you are experiencing hardship because of COVID-19, you can apply to have your fine reviewed. By filling in the table below, you will help us to make an informed decision about your fine (based on the evidence required under the Infringement Act 2006).

Any information you give us is treated with the utmost respect and the information contained therein will be dealt with under all provisions of the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Act).

The information you give us does not guarantee an automatic withdrawal of your fine. Rather, it helps us to make an informed, consistent and fair decision.

The City of Boroondara thanks you for providing this information so that we can ensure these outcomes for all of our residents and visitors.

Please fill in the form below and attach it to your application.
