7.1 Amendment C337boro - Ashburton Heritage Gap Study - Decision to adopt

Executive Summary

Purpose

The purpose of this report is to seek Council's adoption of Amendment C337boro to the Boroondara Planning Scheme following the Urban Planning Delegated Committee (UPDC) decision at its meeting on 7 February 2022.

Background

Amendment C337boro seeks to implement the recommendations of the Ashburton Heritage Gap Study (the Study). As exhibited, the amendment proposed to apply the Heritage Overlay (HO) to nine (9) individual heritage places and one heritage precinct on a permanent basis.

Exhibition of the amendment and the Study was undertaken between 6 May to 7 June 2021. A total of 14 submissions were received including 6 opposing submissions, 6 supporting submissions and 2 partially supporting submissions.

Key Issues

A Panel hearing to consider the submissions received to Amendment C337boro was held on 3 November 2021. Two parties presented at the Panel hearing.

On 1 December 2021, officers received the Panel's report for Amendment C337boro. The Panel generally supported the amendment and recommended it be adopted subject to the post-exhibition change to the Statement of Significance for the individually significant heritage place at 1 Keyes Street, Ashburton. The change amends the Statement of Significance to identify alterations made to the property since 1953 and to inform they are not significant. This change had already been endorsed by the UPDC on 6 September 2021, following public exhibition of the amendment and consideration of submissions.

Officers have reviewed the Panel's recommendation and provided a response in the report considered by the UPDC on 7 February 2022.

Next Steps

Officers recommend Council adopts the amendment as shown in Attachments 1-5 consistent with the resolution of the UPDC and submits the amendment to the Minister for Planning for final approval. If approved by the Minister, heritage controls will be introduced to the properties identified in Amendment C337boro on a permanent basis.

Officers' recommendation

That Council resolve to:

1. Adopt Amendment C337boro to the Boroondara Planning Scheme, as shown in Attachments 1 to 5, in accordance with Section 29(1) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987.
2. Submit Amendment C337boro to the Minister for Planning for approval in accordance with Section 31(1) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987.
3. Following the Minister's approval of Amendment C337boro, update two (2) reference documents to the Boroondara Planning Scheme (the Boroondara Schedule of Gradings Map and Boroondara Heritage Property Database) to include heritage gradings and relevant heritage citations for properties affected by Amendment C337boro.
4. Authorise the Director Urban Living to undertake administrative changes to the amendment and associated planning controls that do not change the intent of the controls.

Responsible director: Scott Walker, Director Urban Living

2. Policy implications and relevance to community plan and council plan

Council Plan 2017-2021

The identification and protection of identified heritage places through the Study and amendment is consistent with the strategic objective to 'Protect the heritage and respect the character of the City to maintain amenity and liveability whilst recognising the need for appropriate, well-designed development for future generations' under Theme 4 - Neighbourhood Character and Heritage.

Specifically, it assists in implementing Council's commitment to 'Preserve the City's history and protect heritage properties and precincts by undertaking a municipal wide heritage review and introduce heritage overlays in the Boroondara Planning Scheme' (Strategy 4.3).

The project will further assist Council in fulfilling its major initiative commitment to 'protect the City's heritage by continuing a municipal wide heritage assessment of all areas not currently subject to a heritage overlay in the Boroondara Planning Scheme'.

Boroondara Community Plan 2017-27

The Boroondara Community Plan 2017-27 sets out the 10-year vision for Boroondara's future based on values, aspirations and priorities important to the community.

Amendment C337boro implements Strategic Objective 4 of the Plan: Protect the heritage and respect the character of the City to maintain amenity and liveability while recognising the need for appropriate, well-designed development for future generations.

Specifically, the amendment implements the following strategies:

- Strategy 4.3 - Preserve the City's history and protect heritage properties and precincts by undertaking a municipal-wide heritage review and introduce heritage overlays in the Boroondara Planning Scheme.

- Strategy 4.6 - Engage with owners and developers to achieve a balance between development and protection of neighbourhood character, heritage and amenity.

Heritage Action Plan 2016

The Heritage Action Plan was adopted by Council on 2 May 2016 and establishes the framework to guide Council's heritage work program as it relates to the identification, protection, management and promotion of Boroondara's heritage assets.

The amendment is consistent with the following action of the Heritage Action Plan 2016:

- "Prepare and implement a heritage study of Ashburton as part of the municipal wide heritage gap study."

Boroondara Planning Scheme

The amendment is consistent with the following objectives of the State Planning Policy Framework (SPPF) and Local Planning Policy Framework (LPPF):

- Clause 15.03-1S Heritage Conservation which seeks to 'ensure the conservation of places of heritage significance' by identifying, retaining and protecting places with identified heritage significance;
- Clause 21.04-5 - Built Environment and Heritage of the Municipal Strategic Statement which includes the objective 'to identify and protect all individual places, objects and precincts of cultural, aboriginal, urban and landscape significance'; and
- Clause 22.03-2 Heritage Policy which seeks to 'preserve 'significant' heritage places, protecting all significant heritage fabric including elements that cannot be seen from the public realm'.

Both the PPF and LPPF seek to ensure the Heritage Overlay is applied to protect places of heritage significance in the City of Boroondara.

Plan Melbourne 2017-2050

The identification, assessment and protection of places of local heritage significance are supported by Outcome 4 of Plan Melbourne which seeks to ensure that 'Melbourne is a distinctive and liveable city with quality design and amenity'. Direction 4.4 recognises the contribution heritage makes to Melbourne's distinctiveness and liveability and advocates for the protection of Melbourne's heritage places.

In particular, Policy 4.4.1 recognises the need for 'continuous identification and review of currently unprotected heritage sites and targeted assessments of heritage sites in areas identified as likely to be subject to substantial change'.

Planning and Environment Act 1987

The amendment is consistent with the objectives of planning in Victoria, in particular the objective detailed in Section 4(1)(d) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987 (the Act), being:

To conserve and enhance those buildings, areas or other places which are of scientific, aesthetic, architectural or historical interest, or otherwise of special cultural value.

This means Council has a statutory obligation to continuously identify and protect places of heritage significance through the Heritage Overlay.

4. Outline of key issues/options

The Panel Report

Overall, the Panel supports the amendment and concludes it is well founded and strategically justified. Accordingly, the Panel recommends Council adopt the amendment, subject to one minor change set out in the Panel Report as follows:

Amend the HO924 Statement of Significance for 1 Keyes Street, Ashburton to identify alterations since 1953 and to inform that they are not significant.

The above recommendation is consistent with the UPDC resolution of 6 September 2021. Officers recommended the Statement of Significance for the property at 1 Keyes Street, Ashburton be updated to note the alterations made to the property since 1953 are not significant. This followed a submission being received from the property owner during public exhibition of the amendment.

The Panel Report has not been referred to Council's heritage consultant for assessment on the basis of the recommendation made by the Panel is consistent with revised Study tabled at the UPDC meeting of 6 September 2021. The Panel has not recommended any other changes to the amendment.

Interim heritage controls

Interim heritage controls were applied to all properties affected by the amendment on 29 January 2021 following gazettal of Amendment C338boro.

The interim heritage controls are due to expire on 30 November 2022 following gazettal of Amendment C369boro. This will allow sufficient time for consideration of the permanent heritage controls by the Minister for Planning.

5. Consultation/communication

All submitters to Amendment C337boro were notified (by letter or email) and given the opportunity to attend and present at the Panel hearing.

All relevant parties were notified in writing of the release of the Panel report.

In addition to the above, all affected property owners and occupiers and submitters were informed by letter of the UPDC meeting on 7 February 2022 as well as this Council meeting.

6. Financial and resource implications

Cost associated with the preparation and implementation of the Study will be funded through the MWHGS Priority Project Budget for the 2021/22 financial year.

7. Governance issues

The officers responsible for this report have no general or material interests requiring disclosure.

The implications of this report have been assessed and are not considered likely to breach or infringe upon, the human rights contained in the Victorian Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006.

8. Social and environmental issues

The inclusion of the precincts and individually significant properties in the Heritage Overlay recommended by the Study would have positive social and environmental effects by contributing to the continual protection and management of the City's heritage.

Home Farm Estate and Environs Precinct Statement of Significance

Heritage Place:	Home Farm Estate and Environs Precinct	PS ref no:	HO918
------------------------	--	-------------------	-------

CONTRIBUTORY
 NON-CONTRIBUTORY

PRECINCT BOUNDARY

What is significant?

The Home Farm Estate and Environs Precinct, comprising 57-79 & 52-96 Albion Road and 1-13 & 2-6 Dunlop Street, Ashburton and Glen Iris, is significant. The precinct was developed from the early 1920s to 1942.

Original front fences (and gates) are contributory elements in the precinct.

How is it significant?

The Home Farm Estate and Environs Precinct is of local historical, architectural and aesthetic significance to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

The Home Farm Estate and Environs Precinct is of historical significance as a tangible illustration of the first residential boom in this area (formerly part of Malvern East), which took place during the interwar years. While several suburban estates were subdivided during the 1880s, in anticipation of the coming of the Outer Circle Railway line, there was only very scattered development until after World War I. It is also an excellent example of the 'spec building' which characterised interwar development in the area, whereby residences were constructed by local builders on land they owned with the intention of placing the houses directly on the market for sale. In the precinct, many houses were builder owned at the time of construction, and its architectural character was strongly influenced by builders such as RL Clarke, A Galbraith, J Treloar, DR Davies, GS Luckins, and WJ Bacon, with RA Dixon of particular note. In contrast to Victorian and Edwardian speculative development, which resulted in rows of identical or similar dwellings, these interwar examples were characterised by the pleasing variety in style and detail provided by a single builder in response to the interwar appetite for eclecticism. (Criteria A & H)

The Home Farm Estate and Environs Precinct is of architectural significance as a collection of good quality interwar dwellings that illustrate the range of styles and materials popular through the course of the interwar period. The earliest houses in the precinct are timber bungalows, including a substantial attic-storey bungalow at 13 Dunlop Street. By the late 1920s this moved to face brick California Bungalows. The more prestigious masonry construction remained the rule for the rest of the interwar period, moving through the classically inspired Mediterranean Revival (mostly rendered), medieval Old English (clinker brick and/or rendered), and then machine-age Moderne (usually rendered) style houses. (Criterion D)

The Home Farm Estate and Environs Precinct is of aesthetic significance in particular for the unusual Old English style house at 6 Dunlop Street, designed and constructed by R A Dixon and Sons in 1939. It is a restrained and elegant version of the style with a dramatically steep front gable and walls of multi-hued glazed brick, and a front fence of matching brick. The early 1920s attic-storey bungalow at 13 Dunlop Street also stands out with its fine and unusual Craftsman detailing, including curved exposed floor joist ends, shingle work and crossed timber panels, reminiscent of Swiss chalet bungalows popular in California. This house also retains its original brick fence and metal pedestrian gate. (Criterion E)

Ashburton Uniting Church, 3-7 Ashburn Grove, Ashburton Statement of Significance

What is significant?

The Ashburton Uniting Church complex, 3-7 Ashburn Grove, Ashburton including the church designed by Bates Smart & McCutcheon in 1961 is significant. The 1935 church hall, the 1939 kindergarten (designed by RM & MH King), and the 1952 timber hall contribute to the historical and social significance of the place. Additions and alterations after 1961 are not significant.

How is it significant?

The Ashburton Uniting Church is historically, architecturally, aesthetically and socially significant to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

The Ashburton Uniting Church complex is historically significant for its demonstration of the evolution and growth of the Methodist (later Uniting) Church in Ashburton, reflecting the establishment of the suburb in the interwar period and its substantial growth in the post-war period. The old church (1935) and kindergarten (1939) were designed by prolific Melbourne architects RM & MH King to facilitate the growing congregation and their families early in Ashburton's establishment as a suburb. Post-war expansion is demonstrated in the construction of the timber hall by local volunteer labour (1952). The imposing modern church (1961) demonstrates the status of Ashburton as a booming post-war suburb in the municipality. As one of a set of post-war modernist churches built for the Methodists, the 1961 church represents the development of the outer ring suburbs in general and the embrace of modernism by their congregations during the period. The development of the site over its history since 1935 is evident in the fabric of the place. (Criterion A)

The Ashburton Uniting Church complex is significant as an intact church complex demonstrating the evolution of the local church and its involvement in the community over time, from its original interwar church and hall, kindergarten, post-war hall and modern church. (Criterion D)

The 1961 Church is architecturally significant as a Late Twentieth Century Ecclesiastic design by prominent architectural firm Bates Smart & McCutcheon. It is an intact and architecturally distinguished example among a set of churches designed by the renowned architectural firm in growing post-war suburbs in Melbourne. (Criterion D)

The 1961 Church is aesthetically significant for its demonstration of modern functionalist principles applied to a church design. Late Twentieth Century Ecclesiastic features include the emphasis on simplicity of form and materials, with cream brick and minimal ornamentation. The low-pitched, steel framed roof emphasises the dominant verticality of the tower. The interiors, underneath exposed steel frames, feature exposed cream brick, simple square windows including a rectangular band of clerestory windows over the choir. The simple timber screen, altar and furnishings contribute to the austere functionality and open 'democratic' nature of the space. (Criterion E)

The Ashburton Uniting Church complex is of social significance for its ongoing use as a place of worship and for community purposes under the auspices of the Methodist and (from 1977) Uniting Churches since the first church and hall were built on the site in 1935. The various buildings on the site illustrate the evolution of the church congregation over time and demonstrate its spiritual and social values within the one site. (Criterion G)

House, 9 Donald Street, Ashburton Statement of Significance

Heritage Place:	House, 9 Donald Street, Ashburton	PS ref no:	HO920

What is significant?

The house at 9 Donald Street, Ashburton, is significant. It was built c1916 as the first house on Donald Street.

How is it significant?

The house is of local architectural and aesthetic significance to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

The house at 9 Donald Street is of architectural significance as a representative example of a modest-sized house that demonstrates the transition from the Federation villa form, typical of the Edwardian period, to a bungalow form typical of the early interwar period. Walls are clad in chamfered weatherboards below window sill level, with roughcast render above – a combination popular during both periods, but with proportions typical of the early interwar era. The roof form is a gabled hip continuing over the front porch with a projecting front gable – massing which is highly characteristic of the Edwardian period – but the width of the front gable, in relation to the house, is also far more characteristic of early bungalows. It is of aesthetic significance for the retention of a high level of ornament including decorative trusswork to the front gable, leadlights to all windows and the front door, and timber verandah fretwork. Ashburton Primary School, 10A Fakenham Road, Ashburton Statement of Significance

Heritage Place: Ashburton Primary School	PS ref no: HO921

What is significant?

The Ashburton Primary School (number 4317), 10A Fakenham Road, Ashburton's Spanish Mission styled original school building designed by Edwin Evan Smith of the Public Works Department in 1928, and the sympathetic extensions added in 1947 and modern extension of 1949 are significant. The 1952 war memorial contributes to the site. Additions and alterations to the building after 1951 are not significant.

How is it significant?

The original Ashburton Primary School building is historically, architecturally, aesthetically and socially significant to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

The original school building is historically significant as the first state school in Ashburton, established in 1928 as the suburb was being established. Additions of 1947 and 1949 demonstrate the rapid growth of Ashburton in the period, as the area grew with the foundation and expansion of the Housing Commission estate and broader suburban growth during the post-war 'baby boom'. The local community successfully lobbied for the establishment and extension of the school, which provided a focus for community organisation, from fundraising for new facilities and services through to local volunteer groups such as the Mothers Club. The school building is also associated with the local Methodist congregation as the building was used for services in the early 1930s. The war memorial, opened at the school by the Victorian Governor Sir Dallas Brooks, contributes to the historical significance of the place as a focus of community memory. (Criterion A)

The original school building is representatively significant as a good example of an interwar state school designed in the Spanish Mission style by the Public Works Department under Chief Architect Edwin Evan Smith. Besides being interesting for its application of the Spanish Mission style to a school building, it demonstrates hallmark characteristics of the type with its rows of multi-paned windows, terracotta tile roof, and decorative porch with school name and number above the entrance. The school was constructed with a rear veranda and balcony. The school's construction spanning the interwar and post-war period is evident, with the extension designed by Percy Everett in 1949 adopting a more modern style. (Criterion D)

The original school building design is aesthetically significant for its demonstration of a Spanish Mission style applied to a school building, comprising decorative parapet, concentration of ornament in the central façade, windows framed within three arches in the central facade, and decorative porch with classical features. Other decorative elements include cement rendered panels between the sets of triple windows and soldier brick courses in a Flemish bond red brick façade. (Criterion E)

Ashburton Primary has a special association with the local community which lobbied and fundraised for its construction and extension as the suburb grew after WWI. The school also has an association with the local Methodist community as the building was used for the Sunday School and church services in the early 1930s. The war memorial, opened by Governor of Victoria Sir Dallas Brooks in 1952 provides a focus for community memory and memorialisation. (Criterion G)

St Michael's Parish Hall, 268 High Street, Ashburton

Statement of Significance

Heritage Place: St Michael's Parish Hall	PS ref no: HO922

What is significant?

St Michael's Parish Hall 268 High Street, Ashburton, 1933, is significant. The 1940s additions contribute to the significance of the place. Additions and alterations to the building after 1947 are not significant. The grotto contributes to the historic setting of the place.

How is it significant?

St Michael's Parish Hall is historically, architecturally and aesthetically significant to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

St Michael's Parish Hall is historically significant as the first Roman Catholic church of St Michael's parish, Ashburton. The hall also served as the first parish school and was extended in 1947 at a time of significant post-war growth in Ashburton with the foundation and expansion of the Ashburton Housing Commission estate. Both the 1933 Hall and its 1940s extensions served as a multipurpose church and school until the construction of the new St Michael's Memorial Church nearby in 1953. (Criterion A)

St Michael's Parish Hall is a particularly fine and outstanding local example of a church hall from the interwar period in Boroondara. It demonstrates Romanesque styling and Christian decorative scheme applied to a church hall. It is particularly distinctive as a multipurpose church and school building from the interwar period, with its dual use evident in the fabric through the ecclesiastical façade to the street with Christian detailing, combined with the multipaned windows and side veranda typical of a school building. (Criterion D)

St Michael's Parish Hall, designed by PJ O'Connor in 1933, is aesthetically significant for its demonstration of Romanesque design, with Lombard band on the tower; arch and tympanum over the doorway; central wheel window and dominant wall on the front façade, with moulded arched string courses on the piers. Other fine aesthetic elements include the different forms of cross motifs that testify to its former historical use as a church. The hall is also distinctive for its Spanish Mission influenced broad eaves formed by the overhanging pyramidal tower roof, and the projecting front clipped gable with timber brackets adding a touch of Arts & Crafts influence. (Criterion E)

St Michael's Parish Hall is significant for its association with the Roman Catholic community in Ashburton since the 1930, serving as the first church until the 1950s and later as the Parish Hall serving the adjacent primary school. (Criterion G)

St Michael's Memorial Church, 270 High Street, Ashburton Statement of Significance

Heritage Place:	St Michael's Memorial Church	PS ref no:	HO923

What is significant?

St Michael's Memorial Church, 270 High Street in Ashburton, designed by CONARG and constructed in 1953, is significant.

How is it significant?

St Michael's Memorial Church is of historical, architectural, aesthetic, and social significance to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

St Michael's Memorial Church is historically significant as a post-war church representing the growth of the municipality's outer suburbs in the mid twentieth century. The Roman Catholic Church was particularly influential in this area of the municipality. The connection between the Catholic Parish and the Housing Commission Estate was also strong, with the growth in the estate swelling the congregation's numbers and making possible the construction of a large and imposing church for this area of the municipality. (Criterion A)

St Michael's Memorial Church is architecturally significant as a particularly well-designed example of a post-war modern church in Boroondara. Its design by CONARG is notable for its modern interpretation of Romanesque Revival in the post-war period, and for its combination of traditional and modern elements. The church demonstrates elements of a traditional church plan with narthex, nave, transept and sanctuary, but dispenses with the side aisles and chapels. The church uses a Romanesque form expressed in readily available post-war materials, in this case red brick. Its decorative elements are similarly expressed using brick rather than stone or render. The emphasis on materiality over ornamentation is typically modern. (Criterion D)

St Michael's Memorial Church is aesthetically significant for its intact and distinctive design by CONARG. It demonstrates characteristics of Romanesque Revival comprising sheer massing of form and massive walls. It applies modern interpretations of traditional Romanesque elements such as the brick dentil pattern in place of a corbel table, archivolt, dripstone moulding, stylised and simplified in brick. The rows of large stained-glass windows contribute to the modern ecclesiastic aesthetic. (Criterion E)

St Michael's Memorial Church is socially significant for its association with the Roman Catholic religious community in Ashburton. The association is evident in the fabric, with furnishings and decorative elements provided by parishioners and their families in Ashburton. (Criterion G)

House, 1 Keyes Street, Ashburton Statement of Significance

Heritage Place:	House, 1 Keyes Street Ashburton	PS ref no:	HO924

What is significant?

The house at 1 Keyes Street, 1950, is significant. Its garage, front fence and garden setting contribute to its significance. Additions and alterations made after 1953 are not significant.

How is it significant?

1 Keyes Street is aesthetically and architecturally significant to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

The house at 1 Keyes Street is a significant example of a post-war house in Boroondara that sought aesthetic refinement through Waterfall styling, crafting the suburban 'dream home' within the limitations imposed by post-war restrictions. (Criterion D)

The house at 1 Keyes Street is a fine and early example of aesthetic characteristics of Waterfall home design, reflecting post-war 'dream home' optimism tempered by building restrictions. The house exhibits curves in its triple fronted plan, corner glazing, chimney details, and a pitched tiled roof with projecting corner eaves forming an entrance porch. The cream brick construction is accented by dark manganese brick and dark brown painted metalwork and window frames. The simple, restrained design is planned to address its corner site and is enlivened by the waterfall chimney, metal lacework, crazy paving steps and fence, and matching garage. 1 Keyes Street retains its original appearance, setting and details, and provides an outstanding example of Waterfall style, post-war housing in Boroondara. (Criterion E)

Victorian house, 10 Marquis Street, Ashburton Statement of Significance

Heritage Place:	Victorian house, 10 Marquis Street, Ashburton	PS ref no:	HO925

What is significant?

The house at 10 Marquis Street, Ashburton, is significant. It was constructed c1891 by builder Leopold Charles Payne as his home.

The front fence (including the lych gate), carport and rear extension are not significant.

How is it significant?

The house at 10 Marquis Street is of local historical significance to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

The c1891 house is of historical significance as a tangible illustration of Ashburton's earliest suburban development. With the land boom of the late 1880s and the anticipated arrival of the Outer Circle Railway Line, a number of residential estates were subdivided in the area. This included the High Street Railway Estate, subdivided in 1888, in which 10 Marquis Street is located. Its Victorian-era origins are illustrated by its typical double-fronted Italianate house form, with ruled render walls, M-profile hipped roof, corniced chimneys, bracketed eaves, double-hung sash windows with stop-chamfered reveals, and a front verandah with stop-chamfered posts and simple timber fretwork. (Criterion A)

The c1891 house is of rarity value as one of a very small number of Victorian-era houses to survive in Ashburton, which demonstrate the early development of this suburb. (Criterion B)

Pyrus Park, 7 Vears Road, Ashburton Statement of Significance

Heritage Place:	Pyrus Park, 7 Vears Road, Ashburton	PS ref no:	HO926

What is significant?

Pyrus Park at 7 Vears Road, Ashburton, is significant. The house was constructed in two stages, with an original timber house of c1885 facing Vears Road, and a later brick front wing of c1899-1901 facing High Street. It is set behind a large front garden with mature trees (reduced in size somewhat from its original High Street boundary).

The house is significant to the extent of its c1885 and c1899-1901 fabric. Later additions, outbuildings, and the carport are not significant.

How is it significant?

Pyrus Park is of local historical significance to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

Pyrus Park is historically significant as a tangible illustration of Ashburton's agricultural past, as it was an orcharding house from the 1880s to the 1930s. Agricultural pursuits were the first type of development in Ashburton (and the former Burwood), predating suburban development that began only in the late 1880s when the Outer Circle Line was announced. The house was first owned by Samuel Jenkin, a gardener, with the initial house built as early as 1885, when Jenkins was rated for a timber house. From 1885 or earlier it was occupied by his brother, William Henry Jenkin, a fruit grower, and then transferred to William in 1889. The house was expanded with a more substantial brick front wing shortly after 1899, around the time ownership transferred to the Catanach family. They were prominent jewellers with stores in Melbourne, and their occupation illustrates the transition of the area to well-heeled suburban living. From 1913 to 1932, botanist and agriculturalist William Dickson Wilson had a pear and apricot orchard here, reflected by the name 'Pyrus Park'. The two phases of the house illustrate the change from a modest farmhouse (the timber wing) to the more substantial brick front wing with its asymmetrical Italianate form and decorative details seen in the more developed western suburbs of Boroondara. (Criterion A)

Pyrus Park is one of only four Victorian-era houses identified in Ashburton, its c1885 wing is the earliest of the four, and overall it is one of the two most intact. It is a rare surviving place demonstrating the early development of this suburb. (Criterion B)

House, 45 Yuile Street, Ashburton Statement of Significance

Heritage Place:	House, 45 Yuile Street, Ashburton	PS ref no:	HO927

What is significant?

The house at 45 Yuile Street, with its matching garage and fence, is significant.

How is it significant?

45 Yuile Street is aesthetically and architecturally significant to the City of Boroondara.

Why is it significant?

45 Yuile Street is an outstanding example of a house built by a builder-developer around the time of the Second World War, combining and adapting popular Moderne and Dudokian stylistic elements to a domestic setting. It is particularly distinguished for its use of decorative polychrome brickwork. (Criterion D)

45 Yuile Street is distinguished by the strong horizontality of its polychrome brickwork; porch with striped bichrome brickwork piers and grooved curved canopy; and its centrally located rendered Moderne chimney with dark bands. The combination of brickwork with white rendered surfaces adds textural interest to the contrasting colours of the light, medium and dark brick. The combination of differently coloured, shaped and textured bricks in the pattern of the walls and piers is Dudokian in style. The horizontality of the banded brickwork of the piers and front façade is contrasted by a strongly vertical, white rendered, projecting chimney, accentuated by horizontal grooves painted in a dark colour. The matching garage at the rear and front fence contribute to the aesthetic consistency. (Criterion E)
