KLINGENDER and ALSOP

Yarraside Residence at Kew

In this plan the land, having a sharp fall, permits the introduction of a basement, while the high-pitched roof is availed of for attic bedrooms and balconies.

5.2 Grade B Structures

The following section includes the data sheets on all the Grade B buildings as identified in Volume 3 of the study. Section 2.2 of Volume 1 discusses the method of the survey and the basis on which places in the study area were designated as Grade B. They are defined in that section of the report as:

Grade B Places: Places that are integral to the cultural significance of the City of Kew as a whole, through their architectural integrity or historical associations.
