

Playground replacement - Fashoda Street Reserve, Hawthorn

- Central picnic area for community gatherings. New picnic table with chess board located next to refurbished kids picnic table.
- Backhoe / digger to represent the former use of the site as a brick quarry
- Junior play unit with:
 - shop front
 - Double 1.2m high wave slide
 - Easy stair access to slide
 - Fire pole from 0.8m high platform
- Existing seat and new bike stands
- Proposed upgraded fence line
- New triple swing frame with:
 - 1 x infant seat
 - 1 x senior strap seat
 - 1 x basket swing
- Positioned for ease of supervision by overlooking both the kick-a-bout space and the rest of the playground.
- Play sculpture and balancing logs
- Semi-accessible mult user carousel
- Senior rope unit with a range of rope traversing and climbing experiences between the existing trees. Includes:
 - 1.6m high slide
 - Junior and senior monkey bars
 - Pommel walk
 - commando crossings

Note: All equipment and surface treatments shown subject to final budget review and site conditions